

WAR ON THE TRUTH

FACTS, THOUGHTS & MEMORIES

War on the Truth by Faten Sabri is not merely a philosophical book.

It is an intellectual and spiritual confrontation with modern confusion about God, truth, existence, morality, and human purpose.

Humanity is not suffering from a lack of information — but from a war against ultimate truth itself.

THE CENTRAL MESSAGE

Human beings cannot live without truth, purpose, morality, and meaning — and these can only be fully understood through recognizing the Creator.

Modern society tries to separate humanity from God while still demanding morality, justice, peace, dignity, and purpose. This contradiction has produced confusion, anxiety, spiritual emptiness, and moral collapse.

The “war on the truth” is therefore:

-  a war against belief in God
-  a war against absolute morality
-  a war against divine revelation
-  and ultimately, a war against human nature itself

THE BOOK'S 6 MAJOR IDEAS

1 THE UNIVERSE CANNOT EXIST WITHOUT A CREATOR

- Nothing cannot create something
- Laws cannot invent themselves
- Existence requires an eternal source beyond time, matter, and space.

The universe had a beginning — therefore, it requires a Cause beyond creation itself.

The Creator is eternal, independent, unlike creation, unlimited, and completely transcendent.

2 MODERN HUMANITY HAS LOST ITS CENTER

Modern civilization has removed God from the center of life and replaced Him with:

- desire
- ego
- entertainment
- power
- money
- fame
- personal pleasure

If there is no Creator, then what is the ultimate basis for morality, justice, dignity, or human value? Without God, morality becomes subjective, truth becomes relative, and life loses meaning.

3 REVELATION IS SUPERIOR TO HUMAN SPECULATION

Humans can observe parts of reality, but cannot fully understand existence without divine revelation.

Revelation provides:

- ✓ the purpose of life
- ✓ the nature of God
- ✓ the meaning of morality
- ✓ what comes after death

Without revelation, humanity remains like blind people touching only parts of the elephant — never seeing the whole truth.

4 THE BOOK DEFENDS PURE MONOTHEISM

The book strongly rejects:

- ✗ incarnation
- ✗ pantheism
- ✗ deifying humans
- ✗ and the idea that God becomes part of creation.

Throughout history, people turned prophets into gods, symbols into idols, and spiritual ideas into mythologies.

The Islamic concept of God is rational, pure, consistent, majestic, and free from human limitations.

5 FREEDOM WITHOUT TRUTH LEADS TO DESTRUCTION

True freedom is not following desires blindly, but freeing oneself from slavery to:

- ego
- lust
- materialism
- and human worship

Real dignity comes from servitude to the Creator alone. Otherwise, humans simply replace God with celebrities, ideologies, politics, wealth, or self-worship.

6 HUMANITY NEEDS MORAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Human systems may punish crimes, but often fail to reward goodness, and cannot guarantee ultimate justice.

Belief in the Hereafter restores:

- ✓ moral seriousness
- ✓ justice
- ✓ hope
- ✓ responsibility

Without accountability after death, oppression and evil ultimately remain unresolved.

THE TONE OF THE BOOK

The book combines:

-  philosophical argument
-  personal conversations with atheists
-  reflections on science
-  spiritual lessons
-  Quranic verses
-  moral commentary

It is written in a passionate, confrontational, and emotionally persuasive style intended to:

- ✓ defend faith
- ✓ challenge atheism
- ✓ awaken moral consciousness
- ✓ and call readers back to God.

THE ULTIMATE CONCLUSION

Humanity's greatest crisis is not economic, political, or technological. IT IS THE LOSS OF TRUTH.

WHEN PEOPLE REJECT THE CREATOR:

- ✗ they lose purpose
- ✗ morality weakens
- ✗ identities collapse
- ✗ desires become gods
- ✗ civilization becomes spiritually empty

BUT WHEN PEOPLE RETURN TO THE TRUTH OF THE CREATOR:

- ✓ life gains meaning
- ✓ morality gains foundation
- ✓ justice gains purpose
- ✓ the human soul finds peace

The author ultimately presents Islam not merely as a religion, but as the restoration of truth, the protection of human dignity, and the path toward true peace, justice, and purpose.
